

St George and the Dragon

History

St George is the patron saint of England, and St George's Day is celebrated on 23rd April.

St George was a brave Roman soldier who protested against the Romans torturing the Christians. But the best-known story about St George is his fight with a dragon – even though nobody knows if this is true.

The Dragon Legend

According to legend, brave St George rescues a maiden from a man-eating dragon. He saves her life and kills the dragon.

The following page shows a part of the story when the dragon is just about to attack brave St George.

The foulest odour that George had ever smelt filled the air. Suddenly there was a roar like thunder as the dragon soared down upon him.
Its vast wings blocked out the sun.

Describe the Dragon!

You are writing a report for a local newspaper, and it is your job to describe the dragon. Try to use as many descriptive words and images as you can so your readers can really imagine how St George felt!
